**********

Why We Kill The Great Masters
The Threat of Socrates, Buddha, and Jesus

Lecture by Salvatore Zambito

The Theosophical Society in Seattle, 717 Broadway East, Seattle, WA

June 9, 2013 4:00 - 5:30 pm

**********
**********
**********

Salvatore Zambito (WA LMP) (E-RYT 500) has been a massage therapist since 1967 and structural bodyworker since 1977. From 1980 to 1986 he taught Yoga and Stress Management at Boise State University. During this period, he also served as BSU's Chief of the Anatomical Kinesiology Laboratory, where he directed cadaver dissection and prosection, and served as a teaching assistant. He has created a 400-hour course of bodywork instruction (Dimensional Integration™) accredited through IMSTAC (International Massage and Somatic Therapies Accrediting Council).

Patanjali's Paradigm -

The Yoga-Sūtra in the 21st Century

Patañjali's Paradigm

Psychology, Meditation and Perception of Reality:

the Emergence of Yoga in Vedic India

Little Patañjali was born into the Vedic Civilization, a culture that saw reality in a very different way from the 21st Century Western world.

Explore the unstated Vedic cultural assumptions that underlie Patañjali's system

The Vedic World-view:

The Historic Origins of Yoga

The Place of Yoga in Vedic Society

Physical Reality: Energy, Matter and Time

The Psychological Significance of Sanskrit

Yogic Theory of Personality and the Subtle Body

[ko as, chakras, samskaras, etc.]

Karma and Dharma in Daily Life

Dynamics of Reincarnation

Yoga and Personal Evolution